

BAHRMI

Bay Area High Road Manufacturing Initiative

Build the Bay.

Raise the bar.

Join us to create the future of manufacturing.

High Road Standards

Working collaboratively to define and promote best practices for quality jobs, equity, and sustainability in manufacturing.

Manufacturer Technical Assistance

Working hands-on with employers to support for environmental and workforce strategies and identify funding resources.

Strategic Research and Communications

Strategic data and analysis that lifts up needs, challenges and opportunities to grow high-road manufacturing in the Bay Area.

Who We Are

BAHRMI is a collaborative of 30+ stakeholders working to build a high-road manufacturing ecosystem in the Bay Area, led by the UC Berkeley Labor Center, New Energy Nexus, Bluegreen Alliance, the California Labor Federation, and Working Partnerships USA.

Work With Us

BAHRMI pilot tests innovative models with local manufacturers alongside workforce, education, and local government allies, then expand what works across the region.
